RE: Commonwealth vs. Edward Nathaniel Bell
Capital Murder Case-January 2001

Dear Mr. Miles:

Our records indicate that you were one of the jurors at the capital murder trial of Edward Nathaniel Bell. It has come to my attention that you may be contacted in the near future by a person or persons representing Bell. Such persons may or may not clearly identify themselves as working for Bell and may try to give the false impression that they are working on behalf of the Commonwealth of Virginia or the Circuit Court of the City of Winchester.

You are under no obligation to discuss the case with anyone representing Bell. If anyone contacts you about the case, you should demand that the persons in question produce some official identification and clearly state whom they are purporting to represent. You then should contact this Office before talking to such persons about the case, so that we can verify their identity.

I hope this information proves useful to you.

Very truly,

Alexander R. Iden
Commonwealth's Attorney
