

Committee Opinion
August 19, 1971

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 211

REFERRALS BY PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATION.

It is not improper for an attorney-member of a professional association, which provides a wide range of benefits for its members, to permit the association to include his name on a referral list for use by members desiring to be referred to a local attorney who is a member of the association. [See II: DR:2-103(B) & (C).]

Committee Opinion
August 19, 1971