

Committee Opinion
January 2, 1974

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 232

PERSONAL INJURY – CONFLICT IN INTERESTS.

It is improper for an attorney to undertake defense of one party to a three car accident when the interests of that party are potentially adverse to the interests of another party to the accident, whom the attorney had successfully defended on a murder charge arising out of the same accident. [See II: DR:5-105 and DR:4-101.]

Committee Opinion
January 2, 1974