

Committee Opinion
July 15, 1980

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 377

CRIMINAL CONVICTION OF A
NOTARY PUBLIC – DUTY TO REPORT.

While an attorney has a responsibility to both the public and judicial system to report to the appropriate authority criminal convictions on the part of a notary public, failure to do so would not constitute a breach of ethical duty on the part of an attorney, calling for disciplinary action. [See EC:8-6 and EC:9-6.]

Committee Opinion
July 15, 1980