

Committee Opinion
August 14, 1981

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 429

COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY –
PERSONAL INJURY CASES.

It is ethically permissible for members of a firm to handle personal injury cases arising out of automobile accidents in a jurisdiction where the son of a partner in the firm is Commonwealth's Attorney or Assistant Commonwealth's Attorney. Whether an actual or apparent impropriety will arise must be reviewed on a case by case basis.
[See II: DR:5-101(A).]

Committee Opinion
August 14, 1981