

Committee Opinion
August 10, 1984

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 605

APPEARANCE OF IMPROPRIETY – FORMER COUNTY ATTORNEY.

It is improper for a former county attorney to represent a defendant/owner in a current suit brought by the county alleging special use permit violations, when the attorney had been-county attorney at the time the county initially sued the defendant/owner of the subject property and took a nonsuit. [DR:9-101(B), EC:9-3]

Committee Opinion
August 10, 1984