LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 683

CONFLICT OF INTEREST – CITY COUNCIL.

Opinion 564 is modified to state that an attorney who holds public office as a city councilman, member of a board of supervisors or member of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Virginia may represent a client before any tribunal of the Commonwealth on a charge of violating a city, county or state ordinance or law; provided, however, that such attorney must comply with the provisions of DR:5-101, DR:8-101, Canon 9 and the Ethical Consideration 9-2 [EC:9-2] of the Virginia Code of Professional Responsibility.
