

Committee Opinion
May 22, 1985

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 695

VIRGINIA TRUST ACCOUNT FOR
VIRGINIA ATTORNEY WITH OFFICE
OUTSIDE OF STATE.

An attorney whose office is in the District of Columbia but who generates the majority of his practice from Virginia clients can satisfy his obligations under Canon 9 by opening an attorney-client trust account in Virginia with a bank that will agree to comply with DR:9-103(B)(1). This account would receive trust funds generated by Virginia clients. [See DR: 9-102, DR:9-103(B)(1)]

Committee Opinion
May 22, 1985