

Committee Opinion
August 6, 1985

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 708

CONFLICT OF INTEREST –
PREPARATION OF WILLS.

It is not improper for an attorney to draft reciprocal wills for a husband and wife although the provisions of said wills may differ with respect to the inclusion of certain beneficiaries by each of the spouses so long as the attorney is able to maintain independent professional judgment with respect to both husband and wife. [DR:5-105(B), (C); EC: 5-16]

Committee Opinion
August 6, 1985