

Committee Opinion
July 11, 1985

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 709

CONFIDENTIALITY – FRUITS AND INSTRUMENTALITIES OF A CRIME.

An attorney who received documents from a client who is the husband of a criminal suspect must deliver those documents to the appropriate authorities if they are the fruits or instrumentalities of a crime. The attorney should first inform his client of this duty. [LE Op. 551]

Committee Opinion
July 11, 1985