

Committee Opinion
August 20, 1985

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 714

CONFIDENCES AND SECRETS.

A law firm represented a client in a partition suit which resulted in the award of certain real estate to the client. In a subsequent public auction of the property, it would not be improper for an associate of the firm to submit bids for the property. [DR:4-101(B)]

Committee Opinion
August 20, 1985