

Committee Opinion
August 30, 1985

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 721
Terminating Representation.

TERMINATING REPRESENTATION

August 30, 1985

When a client reneges on settlement authority that an attorney has already communicated to opposing counsel, it is not improper for the attorney to terminate representation as long as the attorney complies with the provisions of DR:2-108 of the Virginia Code of Professional Responsibility.

Committee Opinion
August 30, 1985