

Committee Opinion
November 1, 1985

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 737

COMMISSIONER IN CHANCERY –
APPEARANCE OF IMPROPRIETY.

It is improper for an attorney to serve as commissioner in chancery in a divorce suit in which the defendant is one of the sitting judges of the circuit court in which the commissioner has been appointed to serve. [DR:9-101, EC:9-2]

Committee Opinion
November 1, 1985