

Committee Opinion
March 11, 1986

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 770

DOMESTIC RELATIONS – CONFLICT
OF INTEREST – SUBSEQUENT
ADVERSE REPRESENTATION.

It is improper for an attorney to represent a wife in a divorce action when the attorney previously represented the wife in securing an interest in the marital home for her son of a prior marriage, and previously represented both the husband and wife with regard to other marital property, absent the husband's informed consent after full and adequate disclosure. [DR:4-101(B)(2), DR:5-105(D); LE Op. 672]

Committee Opinion
March 11, 1986