

It is not improper for a law firm to represent a client in a claim against a municipality while also representing the municipality in unrelated matters, under circumstances in which the law firm had obtained the municipality's consent to maintain actions against it over a period of years. [DR:5-105(D)]

Committee Opinion
November 10, 1986