

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 884

DOMESTIC RELATIONS-
PREPARATION OF PLEADINGS FOR UNREPRESENTED PARTY.

It is improper for an attorney to prepare a pleading, such as a final decree or consent order, for an unrepresented spouse in a divorce matter even when the pleading may benefit both parties. [LE Op. 669; see also LE Op. 535, LE Op. 644, LE Op. 669 and LE Op. 876]

Committee Opinion
March 11, 1987

Legal Ethics Committee Notes. – This opinion is overruled by L E Op. No. 1344.