

It is not improper for an attorney to continue representing a client, when a secretary in the attorney's office will testify against the attorney's client, providing the client consents after the attorney makes full disclosure and gives the client the opportunity to consider employment of other counsel. [DR:4-101(A) and (B)(1), DR:5-101(A), DR:5-106, DR:7-103(A)(2); LE Op. 793 and LE Op. 651]

Committee Opinion
April 1, 1987