

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 897

ATTORNEY-CLIENT – WITHDRAWING
AS COUNSEL.

It is not improper for an attorney to withdraw from representing a client when the client has moved, and is unable to be located, provided reasonable steps have been taken to protect the client's interests. [DR:2-108(B)(4) and (D)]

Committee Opinion
April 1, 1987