
CONSUMER REAL ESTATE PROTECTION ACT SURETY BOND INCREASE

CRESPA SURETY BOND INCREASE ENACTED

If you are registered with the Virginia State Bar under the Consumer Real Estate Protection Act (CRESPA), an amendment to § 6.1-2.21 of the Code of Virginia increasing the minimum CRESPA surety bond from $100,000 to $200,000 will be effective on July 1, 2008.

An original rider or a replacement bond must be received in the office of the Virginia State Bar by July 1, 2008, or your CRESPA registration will be revoked, and you will not be able to perform residential real estate closings.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please contact the Membership Department at (804) 775-0530.

ADMINISTRATIVE SUSPENSIONS

The following members of the Virginia State Bar have been suspended for failure to comply with Part 6, Section IV, Paragraphs 11, 16, 18 and/or 19, Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia, Organization and Government of the Virginia State Bar, as indicated below. We have attempted to contact these members at their last address listed with the Virginia State Bar; however, in some instances, this may not have been effective. In an effort both to advise the bench and bar of these suspensions, and to establish contact with those persons to whom our notices may not have been delivered, the names of those who have been suspended are being published in this issue of Virginia Lawyer Register. Any member knowing the present location and/or practice status of any person on the list should contact the Virginia State Bar as soon as possible. (These lists were submitted for publication on February 27, 2008.) Suspensions are posted on the bar's website.
