

Join the Diversity Conference

Our purpose is to promote inclusiveness in the legal profession and ensure the profession meets the needs of the increasingly diverse public it serves. We need the participation of like-minded lawyers across the entire spectrum of the legal profession. We need you to help pave the way.

Other Ways to Join

Local and specialty bar associations must make a written request to the Virginia State Bar and provide the names, addresses, phone numbers and e-mail addresses of its president, officers, and staff.

Virginia ABA accredited law schools must make a written request to the Virginia State Bar and provide the names, addresses, phone numbers, and e-mail addresses of the law school Dean and, if a person other than the Dean, its duly designated representative.

Individuals in good standing with the Virginia State Bar must make a written request to the Virginia State Bar and provide his/her name, address, phone number and e-mail address.

Fields with * are required.

Name *

Name of Firm or Employer

Address *

City/County *

State *

Zip Code *

Country

E-mail *

Phone *

Mobile

Fax

Bar Membership # *

Comments and suggestions?

All applications must be sent to divconfmembership@vsb.org or the following address:

Stephanie Blanton
Virginia State Bar
1111 East Main Street, Suite 700
Richmond, Virginia 23219-0026

Submit