This is a unique local event, combining world-class music, an awe-inspiring new pipe organ, a delightful musical venue and a great cause, as well as a chance to bid on wonderful holiday gifts!

St. George's Episcopal Church has generously donated their sacred space (with the best acoustics in town!) and their year-old pipe organ to stage a benefit recital and silent auction supporting Rappahannock Legal Services, Inc., a private nonprofit law firm representing indigent clients in civil legal matters.

Enjoy a recital by acclaimed international organist, Phillip Kloeckner, of classical pipe organ repertoire (see Phillip on YouTube: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=HtIFTVUbzp4>), and then join the artist and the rest of the audience at a reception and silent auction at St. George's Sydnor Hall. The theme of the silent auction is "Virginia Is For Lovers...Of Equal Justice", and features ten gift baskets to bid on, all of which contain over $100 to $200 worth of merchandise. Minimum bid is $40, with bid increments of $10. Bidding closes at 9:30 PM. Bid generously and take home a wonderful gift for the holidays!

Sneak preview of proposed silent auction items for bid:

Rappahannock Legal Services, Inc. has been working for equal justice since 1973. In our difficult economy, RLS helps indigent clients obtain domestic violence protective orders, avoid wrongful evictions or foreclosures, and provide clients with enforceable orders for child or spousal support or unemployment benefits that had been illegally denied. In the last several years, the requests for our services have skyrocketed while our sources of funding and donations have dwindled, all due to the downturn. Nonetheless, we are providing high quality representation to assist our clients in securing equal justice in the civil legal system. Please join us on December 16 for beautiful music and fun bidding at the Benefit Recital and Silent Auction for Equal Justice! Thank you for your support of equal justice for all!
