

Sentencing Guidelines Knowledge & Skills Evaluation (Including Ethics Issues)

Five-hour seminars, pending CLE approval for 5 CLE credits (1 ethics), September 27, Winchester, Lord Fairfax Community College; October 12, Big Stone Gap, Mountain Empire Community College; October 14, Roanoke, Roanoke Higher Education Center. The evaluation course is designed for the experienced user of Virginia's Sentencing Guidelines. Attendees will complete a knowledge and skills exercise that will determine the topics covered in this seminar. Attendees will participate in a discussion-oriented workshop addressing common errors and complex scoring issues. Ethics council with the Virginia State Bar will lead the discussion and answer questions related to ethical responsibilities relating to the Sentencing Guidelines. Register by completing the form and submitting it to the commission. Cost $100. Purchase manual separately. (Fee waived for judges, commonwealth's attorneys, P&P, public defenders and staff. Limited scholarships are available for attorneys.)

Introduction to Sentencing Guidelines

Let's Talk Tech – The Good, The Bad and the Ugly: Tips to Enhance Your Practice While Avoiding Internet Blunders & Ethical Dilemmas

Back by popular demand, our experts from last year's very successful "Let's Talk Tech" are returning with all new sessions, including two hours of ethics credit. In today's fast-paced world, putting technology to work for you is a necessity. This program will instruct attorneys on how to avoid a myriad of pitfalls when using the internet. As an added bonus, attendees will learn about budget-saving technology and tech tips to benefit their clients and law practices.

Faculty: James M. McCauley (Ethics Counsel, Virginia State Bar); Kellam T. Parks (Member, Parks Zeigler, PLLC, Virginia Beach); Charles B. Molster, III (The Law Offices of Charles B. Molster, III PLLC, Washington, D.C.); Sharon D. Nelson (President, Sensei Enterprises Inc.); John Simek (Vice-President, Sensei Enterprises, Inc.)
