VSB Informational Videos Debut

The first five of a planned series of informational videos about the work of the Virginia State Bar are available on YouTube. The videos discuss the Clients' Protection Fund, Fee Dispute Resolution, the Senior Citizens Handbook, the So You're 18 handbook, and the Virginia Lawyer Referral Service.

The videos were created as part of a project initiated by VSB President Sharon D. Nelson. Ms. Nelson noted that, "More people prefer to receive information via videos today. By making sure key VSB information is available to our members and the public, we help fulfill our regulatory, educational, and accessibility missions." The videos were written by the VSB Publications Department, approved by the Special Committee on Communications, and produced in the studios of the Virginia Information Technologies Agency. They are intended to provide information about the bar and its services to the public and to our members.

The next set of five videos is in development.
