

Clark & Bradshaw PC

Three Harrisonburg lawyers and a Harrisonburg law firm have been recognized for their pro bono work on behalf of Blue Ridge Legal Services, the Shenandoah Valley’s non-profit legal aid society.

Honored were Darren Bostic of Bostic & Bostic PC, John Krall of Ritchie Law Firm PC, and Laura Thornton of Laura A. Thornton PLC. Clark & Bradshaw PC was also recognized for its many years of service to pro bono efforts, including multiple cases handled by several lawyers at the firm during the past year.

John Whitfield, Blue Ridge’s executive Director, presented the awards during the Harrisonburg-Rockingham Bar Association’s annual Professionalism Seminar on October 19. “These award recipients were champions of the poor in some tough cases this year. The clients they assisted, and the community as a whole, are better for their pro bono service.”

Bostic

Krall

Justine Fitzgerald has joined Hirschler Fleischer’s Tysons office as a partner in the firm’s Real Estate Practice. Fitzgerald counsels clients involved in the acquisition and disposition, development, financing, and leasing of commercial properties throughout the Washington metropolitan area and around the country.

Juan Carlos Flaman has joined the Phoenix office of Hammond Law Group PLLC, where he will manage the firm’s Phoenix office. He represents employers and foreign nationals in immigration matters.

Flaman

Special Counsel Allen C. Goolsby, of Hunton & Williams, has been elected a fellow of the American College of Governance Counsel, an exclusive professional, educational, and honorary association of North American lawyers widely recognized for their achievements in the field of corporate governance.

Goolsby

Mary Charlotte Horner has joined MercerTrigiani as an associate. She will advise community associations on contract matters, voting and proxy issues, quorum and meeting requirements, and provide litigation support on client matters, including assessment collection.

Horner

Richmond attorneys Hunter Jamerson and Alexander Macaulay have established a new firm, Macaulay & Jamerson, which focuses on government affairs and health care law. The firm lobbies the General Assembly and state agencies across all subject areas, and it provides compliance advice and legal representation to health care providers.

Kaitlyn E. Martin has joined the Lynchburg law firm of Petty, Livingston, Dawson & Richards as an associate. She will handle estate planning and administration, tax, and corporate matters.

Martin

McGettrick

James V. McGettrick has joined the law firm of Norton Rose Fulbright as of counsel in its Washington, DC, office. McGettrick joins the firm as a public finance and tax law attorney after many years with Fairfax County developing and implementing major public finance initiatives and defending county tax policies and practices in court.

Wharton Aldhizer & Weaver PLC has announced that Alexandra E. Humphreys and Lucas I. Pangle have joined the firm. Humphreys focuses her practice on civil litigation and family and domestic law. Pangle focuses his practice on corporate, commercial and business law, intellectual property, and civil litigation.

Professional Notices

E-mail your news and high-resolution professional portrait to hickey@vsb.org for publication in Virginia Lawyer. Professional notices are free to VSB members and may be edited for length and clarity.

LITIGATION FINANCE

Funds available for all types of cases.

Contact roni@yourtcp.com

All information Strictly Confidential.