

The CORPORATE COUNSEL AWARD

Planning to take the Virginia Bar Exam and aiming for a career as in-house counsel?

Apply for the Virginia State Bar's Corporate Counsel Award.

The Virginia State Bar's Corporate Counsel Section wants to support law students and future lawyers in Virginia with an award to relieve some financial pressure at the beginning of their career. To that end, one successful applicant will receive an award of $3,000.00, intended to defray such early career expenses as the application fees for the Virginia Bar Exam, bar preparation courses or materials, and the first year's bar dues.

How To Apply

The selection of a winner is determined by a reviewing committee of the Section solely on the basis of a 300 word (or less) essay that answers the following question:

"Presuming you have landed your ideal in-house corporate legal job, how do you now improve the practice of law in Virginia?"

Essays should be submitted, along with the applicant's name and contact information, via email to vsbsections@vsb.org, by the application deadline set by the Virginia Board of Bar Examiners for the exam for which the applicant is sitting. Please include "Corporate Counsel Award" in the subject line. A winner will be announced in the same month as the exam.
