68th Annual Meeting

VIRGINIA STATE BAR

VIRGINIA BEACH, VIRGINIA

June 15-18, 2006
Dear Fellow Virginia Lawyers:

I am pleased to invite you to attend the 68th Annual Meeting of the Virginia State Bar, which will take place June 15-18, 2006, in Virginia Beach. Our Annual meeting traditionally includes numerous programs being sponsored by our sections, committees, and related organizations, in combination with a variety of social events, and this year will be no exception.

As always, this meeting will offer a unique opportunity for you to spend leisure time with family, stay abreast of current legal and professional issues, and socialize with your colleagues, all in the relaxed setting of Virginia Beach. As you will see from the attached schedule and descriptions of events, we are planning a variety of special activities in addition to the diverse CLE offerings and related professional business meetings.

Karen A. Gould, of Richmond, will be sworn in by Justice Elizabeth B. Lacy as the 68th President of the Virginia State Bar at the Banquet on Friday evening, June 16. The featured speaker for the Banquet will be Gene R. Nichol, President of the College of William & Mary.

This year’s CLE offerings will be highlighted by a Showcase program sponsored by the Young Lawyers Conference on Friday morning, June 16, featuring a panel discussion entitled, "A Roberts and Alito High Court: The Effect on Long Standing Precedent and Developing Areas of Law."

The Young Lawyers Conference also is planning its usual wide variety of events, including its Membership Reception on Friday, at which time the Young Lawyer of the Year award will be presented. In addition, the YLC will host the Run in the Sun and Volleyball Tournaments, as well as the dance following the Banquet. The State Bar also is hosting the Second Annual Golf Tournament on Thursday, June 15, open to Annual Meeting registrants and Expo exhibitors.

The Senior Lawyers Conference will sponsor an interesting and timely CLE program on Friday afternoon, June 16. The Conference also will host a special luncheon on Saturday afternoon in honor of this year’s 50-Year Award recipients.

The Conference of Local Bar Associations will host its Annual Meeting for Local Bar Leaders and Conference Representatives on Friday morning, June 16. The CLBA will present its Awards of Merit and Local Bar Leader of the Year award during the breakfast.

On Saturday morning, June 17, the State Bar and Virginia CLE will present the play, "Clarence Darrow: Crimes, Causes and the Courtroom" featuring Graham Thatcher in the role of the famous trial lawyer. Graham Thatcher’s performance is exceptional, incorporating Darrow’s wit and humor, as well as his strong opinions regarding social issues of the day. Spouses and guests are welcome for this provocative and entertaining program.

The General Practice Section will sponsor the 19th Annual Lawyers Expo from Thursday through Saturday. I hope you will plan to visit the Expo, which will feature many vendors offering the latest in law office technology.

Your VSB Officers and Council members will be in attendance and will be easily identifiable by a special ribbon. I encourage you to seek us out and speak with us about issues affecting Virginia lawyers and the Virginia State Bar. Please take advantage of this opportunity to let Bar leaders hear your views.

Every effort will be made to ensure that the 68th Annual Meeting is both enjoyable and professionally rewarding for everyone in attendance. Please review the enclosed materials and register right away for another great Annual Meeting.

I look forward to having you join us in Virginia Beach this June.

Phillip V. Anderson
President
Registration

Advance registration is encouraged to efficiently manage the meeting, and as a cost savings to registrants. Each lawyer and judge should complete and return the enclosed form to the Virginia State Bar office, together with the appropriate registration/ticket fees.

The registration fee for each lawyer includes admission to VSB CLE workshops, lecture outlines, MCLE fees, registration materials, as well as complimentary admission to receptions and some special events. Meal tickets may be purchased at an additional charge, as indicated on the registration form. The registration fee does not include admission to the Recent Developments in the Law seminar sponsored by Virginia CLE on Thursday, June 15.

SPECIAL PROGRAM

“Clarence Darrow: Crimes, Causes and the Courtroom”
Saturday, June 17, 9:30 a.m.
Cavalier Oceanfront Hotel

Following the General Session on Saturday morning, the Virginia State Bar, in partnership with Virginia CLE, will present a play featuring Graham Thatcher in the role of Clarence Darrow, arguably the greatest trial lawyer of the twentieth century.

The play is co-authored by Anna Marie and Graham Thatcher, and produced by their company, Periaktos Productions.

Clarence Darrow: Crimes, Causes and the Courtroom is a spellbinding and realistic character portrait of Darrow, his deeply held beliefs and hard fought courtroom battles. Darrow was a master of the courtroom stage who possessed an uncanny understanding of human character. This solo performance by Thatcher, replete with humor, humanity, and intense courtroom drama, engages the audience in four of the great defense lawyer’s most famous cases between 1910 and 1928. Incorporating Darrow’s wit as well as his own thoughts and courtroom summations, the show explores timeless social, legal and ethical issues.

Here is a sampling of comments about the play:

- “The script is outstanding and Thatcher’s performance is exceptional and compelling.”
- “Powerful, interesting and enlightening…”
- “[Your] overview of Clarence Darrow’s life is nothing short of inspired and inspirational.”

Don’t miss this magnificent and provocative presentation
Spouses and Guests Welcome!

Annual Banquet
Friday, June 16 - 7:00 p.m. • Cavalier Beach Club

Friday’s activities will be highlighted by the Annual Banquet that will be held in Rooms A&B of the Cavalier Beach Club.

The featured speaker for the Banquet will be Gene R. Nichol, who became the 26th President of the College of William and Mary in July 2005. Before returning to Williamsburg where he taught two decades ago, President Nichol was Burton Craig Professor and Dean of the Law School at the University of North Carolina. He has received a variety of awards including the ABA’s Edward R. Finch Award in 2003 for delivering the nation’s best Law Day address and named Pro Bono Law Dean of the Year by Equal Justice Works, the national judicial access organization.

Karen A. Gould, of Richmond, will be sworn in by Justice Elizabeth B. Lacy as the 68th President of the Virginia State Bar. Reservations will be taken on a first-come, first-served basis. Fee $55, per ticket. Space Limited.

Virginia Women Attorneys Association Annual Meeting
Friday, June 16 - 2:30 p.m. • Cavalier Beach Club

On Friday afternoon the Virginia Women Attorneys Association will hold its Annual Meeting, beginning at 2:30 p.m. In conjunction with this meeting, the VWAA will sponsor a program from 3:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. entitled “Privacy: Does It Still Exist? Individual Liberties vs. National Security” which will include a panel discussion exploring the intersection between individual liberties and national security. From the Patriot Act, NSA wiretapping and eavesdropping, interrogation and imprisonment of suspected terrorists, and the everyday changes that impact Americans, these issues have become a hot topic in the media and in the judicial confirmation process. Following the program, the VWAA will host a reception from 4:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Dance with The TFC Band
Friday, June 16 - 9:00 p.m. • Cavalier Beach Club

Immediately following the Banquet, join “The TFC Band” on the deck of the Cavalier Beach Club, from 9:00 p.m. - 12:00 a.m. TFC is a polished show band in the Las Vegas tradition. Together for the last 17 years, the band blends the chemistry of it seven members to produce a high energy performance, incorporating the harmony of song lyrics with energetic choreography and instrumental versatility.
19th Annual Lawyers Expo

A special highlight of this year’s Annual Meeting will be the 19th Annual Lawyers Expo, sponsored by the State Bar’s General Practice Section. The Expo will feature the latest in law office technology, legal publications and various related services. Located in Room C of the Cavalier Beach Club (adjacent to the Cavalier Oceanfront Hotel), the Expo will be open during the following hours:

- Thursday, June 15 4:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m.
- Friday, June 16 9:30 a.m. - 5:30 p.m.
- Saturday, June 17 8:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

An Opening Reception will be sponsored by Pearl & Associates, Ltd. in the Expo Hall on Thursday afternoon, June 15. In addition, refreshments will be provided daily for all registrants. Thomson/West will sponsor the Closing Expo Reception on Saturday, June 17.

SHOWCASE CLE PROGRAM

“A Roberts and Alito High Court: The Effect on Long Standing Precedent and Developing Areas of Law”

Sponsored by the Young Lawyers Conference

Friday, June 16 • 8:45 a.m. - 10:45 a.m.
Cavalier Beach Club • Surf Rooms A&B
2.0 MCLE Credits

This year’s Showcase CLE will be sponsored by the Young Lawyers Conference. The program promises to be a lively and highly informative panel presentation that will address the significant developments that have taken place in the composition of the United States Supreme Court with the appointments of Chief Justice Roberts and Justice Alito. Will their appointments have any effect on the principle of stare decisis? What can we expect from the Court on such potential hot button topics of executive power, national security and international terrorism?

We are proud to have three distinguished and renowned constitutional law scholars to address the topic: Ronald Rotunda, George Mason University Foundation Professor of Law; Michael Gerhardt, Samuel Ashe Distinguished Professor of Constitutional Law at the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill; and Lillian BeVier, John S. Shannon Distinguished Professor of Law at the University of Virginia.

The panel discussion will be moderated by Tony Mauro, Supreme Court correspondent for the Legal Times. Mr. Mauro previously covered the Supreme Court for USA Today and Gannett News Service for 20 years, and possesses the experience and knowledge commensurate with a panel of this caliber.

Cavalier Oceanfront Hotel

The VSB Conference of Local Bar Associations invites local bar leaders and Conference Representatives to the Conference Annual Meeting and Breakfast on Friday morning from 7:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m.

The breakfast will feature the presentation of the 21st Annual Awards of Merit and the 11th Annual Local Bar Leader of the Year Award.

During the meeting, the new executive committee of the conference will be elected and new conference representatives will be recognized.

Special announcements regarding the Conference’s Annual Meeting and Breakfast, and information on the Awards of Merit and Local Bar Leader of the Year competitions will be mailed under separate cover to all local bar associations in the state.

Awards of Merit and Local Bar Leader of the Year Award

The 21st Annual Awards of Merit will be given to honor outstanding projects sponsored by local bars which compete in six divisions. Conducted by the VSB Conference of Local Bar Associations, the competition is designed to recognize outstanding projects of local and specialty bars; share successful programming ideas and resources; encourage greater service to the bar, bench and public; and inform the public about some of the excellent work being done by local and specialty bars and the legal profession.

The 11th Annual Local Bar Leader of the Year Award will recognize an active leader in a local bar association who has offered important services to the bar, bench and public. Nominations are requested in the form of typewritten letters of recommendation.

More information may be obtained by contacting Barbara Allen at the Virginia State Bar (804) 775-0590 or visit the CLBA website at www.vsb.org/clba. Entries must be received no later than Monday, May 1.
