

Derek A. Davis
Circuit 6

I began my legal career in private practice representing clients in a variety of legal matters before being elected Commonwealth's Attorney for Surry County, where I am currently serving my second term. I currently serve on the Virginia Association of Commonwealth's Attorneys Legislative Committee and as Vice Chair of the Riverside Community Criminal Justice Board. I have represented the Commonwealth in thousands of criminal cases and also have experience running a law practice.

Having experience as both a prosecutor and in private practice, I would be well suited to represent the 6th Circuit on Bar Council. I see the opportunity to serve on Bar Council as a natural extension of my current position, where my goals align with the Virginia State Bar. On a daily basis, I strive to protect the public and assist in improving the legal and judicial system, so that it may be equitable for everyone.
