

Lee J. Bujakowski Circuit 6

Lee J. Bujakowski was born and raised in Hopewell, where he returned to practice law after graduating from Tulane University School of Law. In law school, he participated in Tulane's Law Litigation Clinic where he represented juveniles in criminal litigation. He also clerked for the public defender's office in Plaquemines Parish, Louisiana. Currently, he is a partner with Marks & Harrison, P.C. where he has practiced as a personal injury trial lawyer since 2013.

He serves as Counsel for Hopewell Recreation & Parks Foundation and Hopewell Manufacturers Association. He serves as a member of the Virginia Freedom of Information Advisory Council, Hopewell Jaycees, and American Association for Justice.

Lee's experience and knowledge in personal injury law and litigation has enabled him to provide exceptional representation to injured individuals. His dedication to ensuring these individuals are vigorously represented coincides with the Virginia State Bar's goals and mission.
