

Committee Opinion
November 12, 1969

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 201

INVOLUNTARY COMMITMENT OF CLIENT – APPEAL.

It is not improper for an attorney having received at the conclusion of a competency hearing a “Notice of Intent to Retain [the client] on an Involuntary Basis” to decline to appeal such decision if such be his good faith professional judgment. [See II: DR:7-101(B)(1).]

Committee Opinion
November 12, 1969