

Committee Opinion
December 1, 1971

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 212

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST.

It is not improper for an attorney, who had successfully settled a claim for damage to his own property by insured driver, to thereafter undertake to represent insured driver in a claim against the manufacturer of insured driver's automobile. [See II: DR:5-101; DR:5-105.]

Committee Opinion
December 1, 1971