

Committee Opinion
April 18, 1973

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 223

INSURANCE COMPANY ATTORNEY – CONFLICTS IN INTERESTS.

It is improper for an attorney defending two of insurer's policyholders in a personal injury case to concurrently represent insurer in a declaratory judgment action against the two policyholders. [See II: DR:5-105.]

Committee Opinion
April 18, 1973