

Committee Opinion
December 3, 1975

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 273

ATTORNEY AS POTENTIAL WITNESS – DECLINING EMPLOYMENT.

It is improper for an attorney, who had prepared the decedent's last will after interviewing the testator in the presence of the sole beneficiary, to represent the beneficiary in a suit alleging the use of undue influence by the beneficiary on the testator to obtain the new will. [See II: DR:5-101(B).]

Committee Opinion
December 3, 1975