LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 289

PETITION TO SET ASIDE ADOPTION – REPRESENTATION OF PARTIES BY ATTORNEY – CONFLICT.

It is not improper for an attorney to represent "C" in a Petition to set aside the adoption by "B" of the child of "A" and "C" where the attorney is representing "A" in a divorce proceeding against "B" if the attorney did not represent any of the parties in the original adoption proceeding and assuming the child was born out of wedlock or while the mother was married to "C." [See II: DR:5-105.]
