

Committee Opinion
February 3, 1978

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 298

ATTORNEY RETIRING FROM FIRM.

Upon retirement from the law firm, it is not improper for an attorney to prepare and forward a letter to each client advising them of the change in circumstances and advising them further that the firm will retain their file and will handle their case or that they may seek other counsel. [See II: DR:2-108(D) and EC:4-6.]

Committee Opinion
February 3, 1978