

Committee Opinion
June 14, 1979

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 327

CONFLICT OF INTEREST – TRIAL
JUDGE DETERMINES REMOVAL.

Where an attorney has represented two clients who have directly conflicting interests and the matter is docketed for trial, the presiding judge should be informed of the situation and be called upon to decide whether counsel should be removed. [See II: DR:2-108(A)(1) and (C) and DR:5-105.]

Committee Opinion
June 14, 1979