

Committee Opinion
July 30, 1979

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 344

CORPORATION – CONFLICT OF INTERESTS.

It is not ethically permissible for an attorney or any member of his firm to represent a party against a corporation where the stock is owned wholly by one person and where the attorney or a member of his firm is currently representing that same person in other unrelated matters. [See II: DR:5-105.]

Committee Opinion
July 30, 1979