

Committee Opinion
July 29, 1980

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 380

SOLICITATIONS – DIRECT-DIAL
TELEPHONE.

It is not ethically impermissible for an attorney to include his name and address on the profile of a direct-dial phone system located in the local police or sheriffs department, as a means of providing ready access to legal representation for arrestees, unless such activities are deceptive or misleading. [See II: DR:2-102(A).]

Committee Opinion
July 29, 1980