

Committee Opinion
July 29, 1980

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 381

WITHDRAWAL FROM LAW FIRM – NOTIFICATION TO PRESENT AND
FORMER CLIENTS.

An attorney who withdraws from a partnership may ethically notify present and former clients of his departure. In those cases where he cannot adequately and fully represent the interests of his present clients, the attorney may ethically recommend that the client consult a particular attorney. [See DR:2-103(A), DR:2-108(B)(1), (C) & (D) and DR:6-101(A).]

Committee Opinion
July 29, 1980