

Committee Opinion
January 20, 1981

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 398

COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY –
PERMISSIBLE PRIVATE PRACTICE.

It is not ethically improper for an attorney, who serves as Commonwealth's Attorney of a county having a population of less than 15, 000 inhabitants, to also serve as counsel for the county's Public Service Authority and the county's Industrial Development Authority. [See § 15.1- 8.1, Va. Code (1950); Canon 4 and Canon 5 of the Virginia Code of Professional Responsibility.]

Committee Opinion
January 20, 1981