

Committee Opinion
May 21, 1981

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 416

COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY –
COMMUNICATION WITH JURORS.

It is ethically improper for a Commonwealth's Attorney to (1) write a letter congratulating a particular jury panel for the manner in which they carried out their duties; (2) write an entire jury panel after they are discharged at the end of each term of Court congratulating them for the manner in which they carried out their duties; and (3) write members of a grand jury after they are discharged congratulating them for the manner in which they carried out their duties. [See II: DR:7-107(C).]

Committee Opinion
May 21, 1981