

Committee Opinion
September 20, 1982

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 474

LAWYER-TO-LAWYER PROGRAM.

A lawyer-to-lawyer program, in which less experienced attorneys are referred to attorneys with experience in particular areas to assure adequate legal service to the formers' clients, is not only proper but also commendable.

Committee Opinion
September 20, 1982

Legal Ethics Committee Notes. – Rule 1.6 Comment [7a] governs such “mentor” conversations.