

Committee Opinion
March 3, 1982

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 492

MULTIPLE CLIENTS - NON-PARTISAN ADVICE.

It is not improper for an attorney to render non-partisan advice to a husband and wife about child support, if the attorney is not negotiating the matter; if the attorney is simply memorializing the agreement already reached by the husband and wife, the attorney may draft a child support agreement after having received consent given after full disclosure. [DR:5-105(A)(C), LE Op. 296 (withdrawn on 9/8/83 for reconsideration)]

Committee Opinion
March 3, 1982

Legal Ethics Committee Notes. – This LEO was effectively overruled by Rule 2.2(d).