

Committee Opinion
June 21, 1983

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 550

COMMUNICATION WITH ONE OF ADVERSE INTEREST.

It is not improper for a personal injury plaintiff's attorney to negotiate directly with the insurance company of the adversary party or for the attorney's investigator to interview the adversary driver or witnesses without the consent of counsel for such parties or witnesses unless the attorney or his investigator knows or has reason to know that the party is represented by counsel. [DR:7-103(A)(1), EC:7-15]

Committee Opinion
June 21, 1983