

Committee Opinion
May 10, 1984

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 574

APPEARANCE OF IMPROPRIETY –
COMMONWEALTH ATTORNEY –
SHARING LIBRARY EXPENSES.

It is not improper for a commonwealth attorney to share expenses of library space with an-attorney who defends cases prosecuted by the commonwealth attorney, when the respective law practices are not affiliated in any other way, there is no other financial relationship between the two attorneys, and the library space is not physically annexed to either office.

Committee Opinion
May 10, 1984