

Committee Opinion
December 19, 1984

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 639

ESCROW FUND – REQUEST FOR DISBURSEMENT BY CLIENT.

It is not improper for an attorney to refuse to release upon the client's request the personal funds of a client which funds are being held by said attorney in escrow upon the direction of a judge of a circuit court of Virginia as a condition to the authorization by that judge of a personal recognizance bond pursuant to which the client has been released from jail.

Committee Opinion
December 19, 1984