

Committee Opinion
May 10, 1985

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 692

SIMULTANEOUS REPRESENTATION OF ADVERSE PARTIES IN UNRELATED SUITS.

It is not improper for a firm representing an unincorporated association of condominium owners against individual unit owners for past due assessments to also represent unit owners individually and collectively in a class action suit against a manufacturer for defects in the condominium's air conditioning system.
[See Canons 4 and 5]

Committee Opinion
May 10, 1985