

Committee Opinion
January 13, 1986

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 755

CONFLICT OF INTEREST – DOMESTIC RELATIONS – WAIVER OF RIGHTS
UNDER SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS'
CIVIL RELIEF ACT.

It is not improper for plaintiff's counsel in a divorce case with a service person as defendant to prepare a "Waiver of Rights Under Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act" so long as it is tendered to the defendant's legal officer in such a way that execution and return of the waiver cannot be accomplished without the legal officer's advice and guidance. [See LE Op. 644 and LE Op. 689]

Committee Opinion
January 13, 1986