

Committee Opinion
September 23, 1986

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 842

ATTORNEY – WITHDRAWAL OF REPRESENTATION.

An attorney does not have a continuing obligation to represent a client who has repeatedly breached agreements to pay agreed-upon fees and to reimburse the attorney for out-of-pocket expenses. Given the above circumstances, the attorney may move to withdraw. [DR:2-108(C)]

Committee Opinion
September 23, 1986