

Committee Opinion
April 1, 1987

LEGAL ETHICS OPINION 909

LAW FIRM – STATIONERY.

It is not improper for a law firm to place the name of a certified public accountant associated with the firm on the right hand side of the stationery when all the attorneys are listed on the left side as long as an affirmative statement is added which makes clear the certified public accountant is not licensed to practice law. [DR:2-101(A); LE Op. 767]

Committee Opinion
April 1, 1987