Project Summary:

The VBA Rule of Law Project (www.ruleoflaw-vba.org) is a one-day educational program taught by volunteer lawyers and judges in Virginia, specifically designed to enhance the teaching of the rule of law to middle school students. The web-based curriculum, designed by educators and taught by teachers and lawyers in the classroom, inspires students to become active citizens by giving them a better understanding of the rule of law as the basis for the rights we enjoy and the responsibilities we share as Americans.

Budget Narrative:

The VBA Rule of Law Project is a multi-year, statewide, interdisciplinary initiative specifically designed to educate Virginia's middle and high school students about the rule of law in America. As such, the Project promotes a better understanding of the rule of law as the basis for all the rights and freedom we enjoy as citizens of a nation of laws, not of men and women. A collaborative effort among citizen lawyers, middle school teachers and administrators, The VBA Rule of Law Project evidences the VLF's mission to promote the rule of law and to support law-related education.

The VBA Rule of Law Project is expected to be introduced during the 2010-2011 grant cycle in the following school system(s): _____

As a local bar association in Virginia, we will provide volunteer support to sustain the project by forming committees, establishing and fostering contacts with the school administrators and teachers, and organize the volunteer activities. With continued support, this program will continue to educate our children about the rule of law for many years to come.
